REPUBLICAN CONVENTIO ".

The Meeting Yesterday-Ed Shaw, T. A. Hamilton, Hou. Barbour Lewis. and Others, Speak-The Color Line.

I'm a Republican, but I'm No Nigger Republican "-The Platform and a Financial Dodge-State Credit, Repeal of Merchants' Tax-Revision of Revenue Laws-Opposition to State Constitutional Amendments-County Administration -The Delegates-Etc.

Quite a large assemblage of colored citizens and a score of white men gathered at Assembly hall yesterday af-ternoon, in response to the following published call: "By order of the Republican county committee of Shelby county, notice is bereby given that a mass convention of the Republicans of Shelby county will be held at Assembly hall, No. 363 Main street, in Memphis, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, on Thursday, the seventeenth day of August. Delegates will be appointed to the State Republican convention, to be held at Nashville on the twenty-fourth day of August. And also delegates to the congressional dis-trict convention for the tenth district, which will hereafter meet, for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate for congress from said district. By order of the county committee.

"EDWARD SHAW, Chairman Ed Shaw (colored), chairman of the executive committee, stated the objects of the convention briefly. For the office of permaneut chairman Judge Bigelow and T. F. Cassell (colored) were nominated, and the latter was elected by the mass convention.

Chairman Cassell addressed the convention in the usual style, and returned his thanks for the honor conferred upon On motion, Captain S. S. Garrett was elected secretary, and Green Evans (colored) was elected his assistant. Dr. P. D. Bercher, W. M. Randolph and Charles Kortrecht moved to appoint a committee to select delegates, and it was carried, after a lively discussion had taken place between the white and black Republicans on the subject of the color

Chairman Shaw resented the charge, and denied that the black people intended to do any such thing.

Mr. Randolph said he was not a candidate for congress, and would not be under any circumstances.

The following committee was selected to select delegates: William Randolph, Barbour Lewis, J. A. Thompson (col-ored), Charles Kortrecht, Judge J. E. Bigelow, and P. L. Gwynn (colored) A colored man arcse and protested against making the committee almost exclusively white. The following additions committeemen were then elected: George Page (colored), Dave Nelson (colored), and Martin Rust (colored).

The committee retired and the convention took a recess. ED SHAW (COLORED). In the meantime, on motion, Ed the Democratic party was the same now neunced it as infamous, as there is no the public debt was paid, but since the Democracy came into power not a cent of the interest of the public debt has by the Democracy to enable a man to go up into the mountains to hunt for mines, canine's muzzle, however, is located in coal, etc. He did not know what the office was called, but the man got three en opposite direction from that of the thousand dollars a year for doing nothing, as he never went anywh re to look for mines. [Colonel Shaw evidently re-ferred to the office of State geologist, whose able and learned scientific reports world. He denounced the outrages committed against colored men by white men throughout the State and the south. Even white Republicans keep away from Repub ican meetings; but on the streets they say: "I'm a Republican, but I'm no nigger Republican." No such men; nor have we. They are not elected to office by the Republicans all ostracism for opinion's sake, and pro-(Brownlow not excepted) can be found acting with the Democracy. At the last election white and black Rapublicans bribery as utterly subversive of the fundwere found voting for Democratic nominees. This was wrong. Stick to your | ment by the people is instituted. principles, and act like men. Chairman

> TOM A. HAMILTON. Loud calls being made for Mr. T. A. Hamilton (white), that well-known ex-Memphian came to the front and talked, He indorsed all that Ed Shaw had said, and he had returned after a long absence just as he was when he left, with the same old harness on. He was for Hayes and Wheeler to the last. Colonel Hamilton's remarks were of a rambling character, he evidently not feeling well or in trim for making a speech. He asserted that the Damocratic and Reputlican parties stand exactly alike in their platform on national matters, and the colored man must select which to sup-port. Tennessee will go overwhelmingly for Hayes and Wheeler, because that party has the vote. In his judgment, a fair vote has never been counted in Shelby county by the Democracy. You will have a legislature of Republicins, and we will elect two United States senstors. Tilden is a reformer; he should be, as all ballot-box stuffers should be, and Tilden was one. (A voice, "Tell us some more about Tilton, Is'e didn't know him.") [Great laughter from all portions of the hall.] Do sey Thomas is an Independent candidate for the office of governor, and it might be well to nominate him for that office at the Republican convention. Mr. Hamilton believed that they were going to have a fair election. He believed a better state of feeling and harmony is prevailing at present throughout the south. Both parties are putting their representative men in the field, and this is a good sign. A man is not a scoundrel because he is either a Rapublican or a Democrat, because his face is white or black. General Grant has ordered Sheridan to see that a fair election shall be held, and he told him to notify the colored men to go and vote, and that the "boys" will be with them.

Shaw closed his speech by returning his thanks to the convention.

A number of alternates were also selected to fill vacancies.

A WINTERS' BREEZE. When the list of alternates to the State committee was read, the name of P. M. Winters caused some commotion. One gentleman arose and stated that Mr. Winters was a delegate to the Democratic State convention, and he objected to his name being on the list. Several voices-"Take his name off."

Another person arose and stated that

Mr. Winters had gone to Hot Springs, to remain a month, and he (Winters)

requested him, if he should be made a delegate by the convention, to state that | owner of a bank or a stockholder ther :he would not be present, and would not attend. Captain S. S Garrett stated that Mr. Winters had told him that he would serve as a delegate. [Sensation.]
Chairman Randelpa, of the committee, stated that the committee was in foubt as to Mr. Winters's politics, but ters was permitted to remain as an alter-A CONGRESSIONAL TROUBLE. On motion, a committee was selected to draft a series of resolutions for the convention.

Dr. P. D. Beecher offered a resolution that the sense of the convention was in favor of E4 Shaw for congressman. Ex-Mayor Loague offered a resolution that the sense of the convention was in favor of Barbour Lewis for congressman. This gave rise to considerable discus-sion, which was settled at last by laying both resolutions on the table.

JUDGE BARBOUR LEWIS. During the absence of the committee called forward to make a speech and emsume time. He did so by making one of his characteristic speeches in lau-dation of Republicaus and abuse of Democrats. He charged Tilden with being a pariner of Tweed. He compared Tilden to Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Christ, as he (Ti'des) had befrayed his State convention a candidate for elector old friend Tweed, and he asserted that | for this district. Judas was, no doubt, a thief and a Democrat. The judge closed his lengthy speech to hear the report of the committee on resolutions, as follows:

RECSLUTIONS. 1. We, Rerublicans of Shelby county, in mass convention assembled, nereby declare our steadfast adherence to the prinriples of the National Republican party. Thomas H. We are in favor of the payment of the just debts of the State, and oppose re-

While we do not object to the acceptance of such a compromise as the State's creditors, in view of the impoverished condition people, and the stagnation of all industries may propose, we do denounce any proposed compromise in the form of legislation operating as a moral or legal compulsion on the public creditor. hold the Democratic party responsible for the passage of the funding act of 1873, for which there was no conceivable necessity. And as an evidence of its want of faith, we point to the fact that after the creditors of the State had funded their debts, under the pledge in the funding set that a sufficiency of the revenue should be set apart to pay the interest on the new bonds, as it fell due, the Democratic legislature of 1875, not only failed, as did the legislature of 1873, to levy a tax sufficient to raise a fund to pay the interest, but by its very first public act repealed the three sections of the funding act which had set apart a sufficiency of the revenue to pay the interest, and thus left the creditor without any r medy whatever.

collection of all lawful taxes may be certain and speedy. The effect of the present system is to make the payment of taxes voluntary merely; and the cousequence is that those who pay willingly, pay the proportion of those who re fuse to pay at all; and in proportion is the taxes levied are not collected, the rate of taxation is unjustly and unnecessarily increased.

9. Heretofore in Tennessee every citizen had the right to be received and entertained at public inns and places of public smusement, and to be transported by public means of transportation. Those rights had existed from time immemorial, until the last Democratic legislature had abolished them, and gave to every keeper of an inn or place of public amusement and every common carrier the absolute discretion arbitrarily to reject any and all persons, without assigning any reason whatever for his doing so. We pronounce such legislation at war with the spirit of the age and a flagrant violation of the common right of the people, and demand its repeal.
